Judge Foell in the superior court on Monday refused to dissolve the Cincinnati Nationals' injunction against Pitcher George Johnson on the technical grounds on which the Kansas City Federals asked. The case will be argued on its merits a week from Tuesday. The Kansas City club based its motion on the fact that Johnson had not been notified of the Cincinnati suit until the injunction was served on him.

The Chicago Federals have signed Catcher Clem Clements, formerly with the St. Louis Americans, but who refused to report to the Oakland Pacific Coast league club when sold. Heine Zimmerman, the Chicago Nationals' third baseman, who has been ill, was better Monday, but was not expected to play for some time.
